FOREIGN NEWS ON APPLES

THE HAMBURG AND COPENHAGEN APPLE MARKETS

About 3,000 barrels and 16,200 boxes were offered at the Hamburg auction Thursday, November 19, according to a cable from Fred A. Motz, Fruit Specialist in Europe for the Foreign Service of the Department of Agriculture.
This compares with 30,000 barrels and 43,000 boxes at this time last year.
Prices ruling this week were somewhat lower than those of last week. About 200 boxes of Oregon Boscs were offered at auction. Prices for both apples and pears were much below those ruling at this time last year. The Hamburg market is still plentifully supplied with domestic stock, especially of the lower grades. A fairly wide selection of barreled varieties was offered on the Copenhagen market Tuesday, November 17. Prices were low. Winesaps topped the barrels in price.
